

HOME-STAY ACCOMMODATION GUIDELINES - FELLOWSHIP

"Home-stay" accommodation means living within the premises of GHAPE facility. This furnished accommodation provides an independent stay with shared facilities like external bathrooms. In some cases kitchen and living room are not separated. The eat-in kitchens have no sink, and all washing is done externally. The beds are queen size and sofas are beautiful. Occupants do their own things including: cooking, cleaning, laundry and grocery shopping. Water, electricity and cooking gas bills are included in the charges.

Advantages

- Fellows are not isolated as they live among GHAPE family where there is relatively plenty of community security in these days of increasing crime wave the world over. Cameroon to an extent still enjoys the merits of community life.
- No hazels transporting utensils when moved to other locations for short periods as one day or long periods as a couple of weeks. Applicants carries only their personal belongings
- No additional lodging expenses are incurred when intern time is split to offer them opportunities to experience different work setting- urban, semi-urban and rural life.
- Daily saving on transport commuting to work /GHAPE office as distance is less than 2 minute walk

Responsibilities

Volunteers are called upon to uphold and foster GHAPE culture: punctuality, hard-work, team work, accountability, respect, jokes, fun, sharing, caring and helping.

Volunteers are expected to treat all equipment with care. An inventory might be made on arrival and departure of fellows in these apartments. They shall be responsible for unaccounted items.

Procedure

- Applicants shall complete the Fellowship home-stay accommodation application upon receipt of Letter of Acceptance.
- Reservation is said to have been made when applicable charges have been paid. Cancellation of trip after reservation has been made will result in 50% loss of the total accommodation fee paid. The applicant will bear the cost of sending back the balance. The charges are spelled out on the Fellowship Home-Stay Accommodation Application
- Invitation Letter shall be sent to applicant upon receipt of accommodation fees. This invitation letter might be required for your visa application.
